A decorative scene featuring a blue glass vase with eucalyptus branches on a wooden surface against a wall of large, square, light-colored tiles. The tiles have a subtle, mottled texture and are arranged in a grid pattern. The vase is made of translucent blue glass and contains several stems of eucalyptus with small, round, green leaves. The entire scene is set on a dark brown wooden surface.

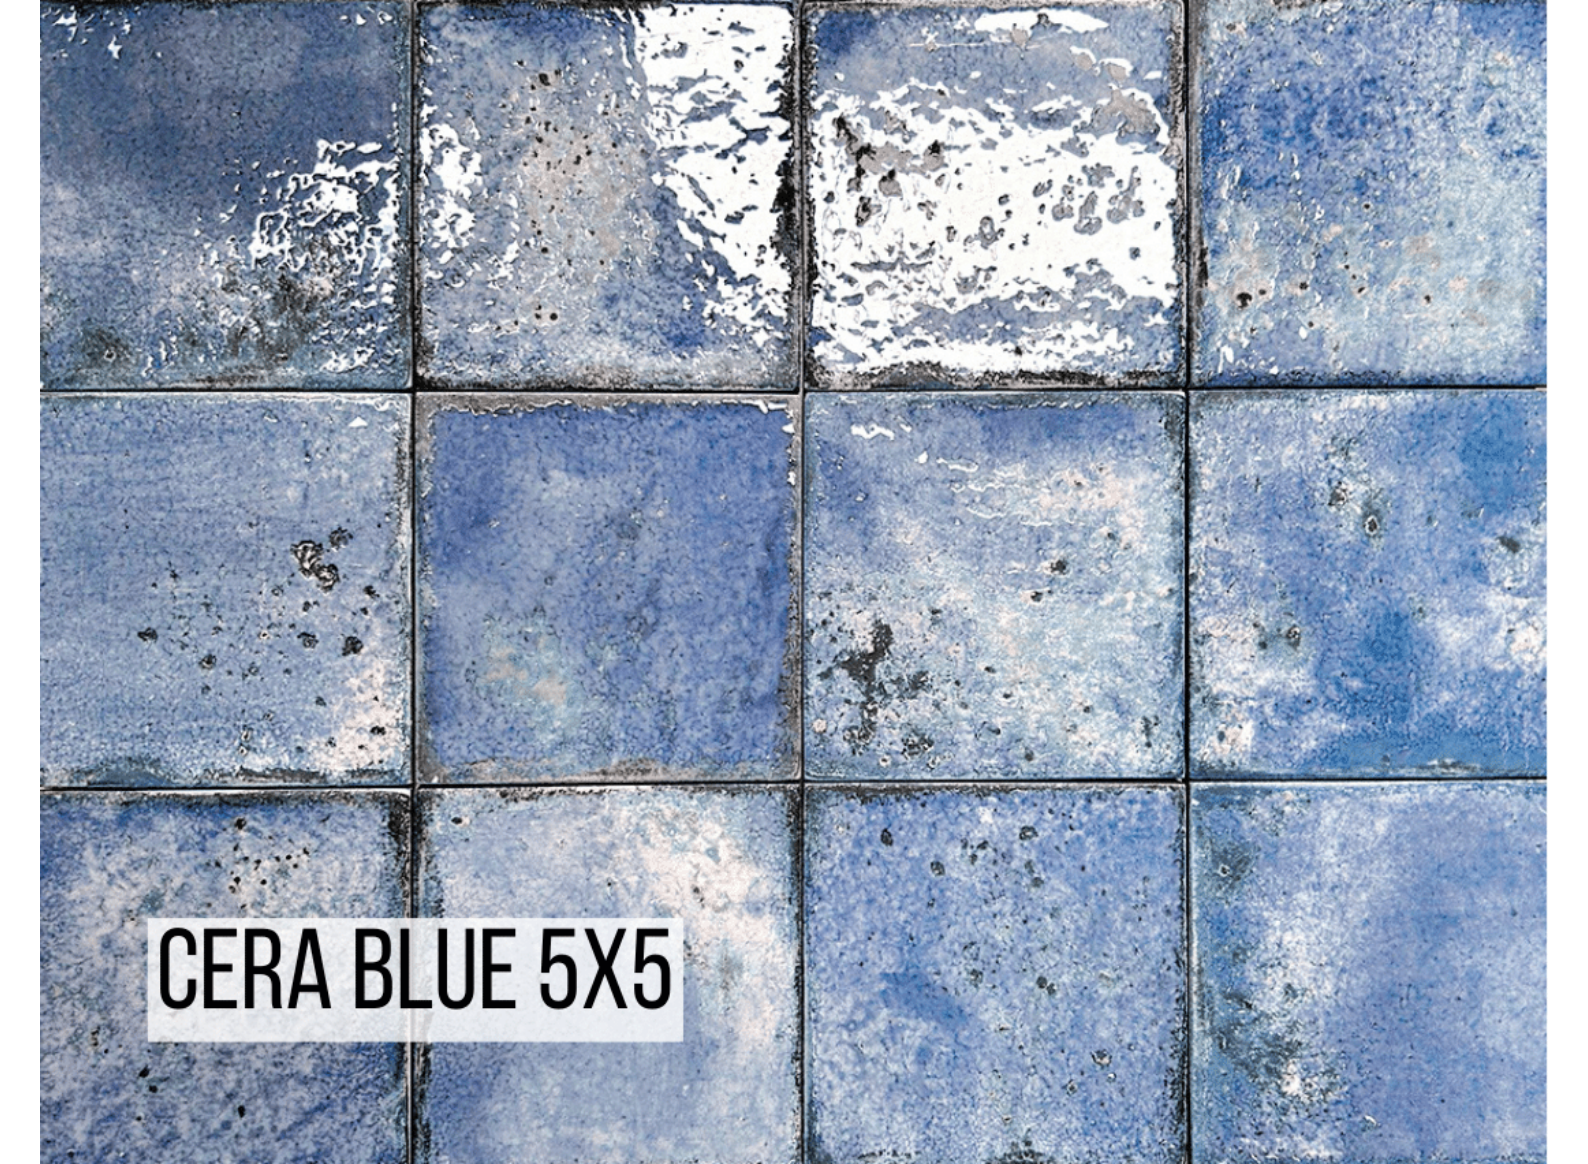

CERA WHITE 5X5

An outdoor shower stall is shown, featuring a wall and floor made of square blue tiles with a mottled, weathered texture. The wall is covered in these tiles, and the floor is also tiled. A chrome shower fixture is mounted on the wall, including a large overhead showerhead and a handheld showerhead on a sliding bar. To the left of the showerhead, a small chrome shelf holds two green bottles of soap. The shower is set against a white corrugated metal fence. To the right of the shower, there is a large green bush and a tall grassy area. The sky is clear and blue.

CERA GREY 5X5

A close-up photograph of a wall covered in rectangular teal ceramic tiles. The tiles are arranged in a staggered brick pattern. The surface of the tiles is highly textured, showing a mottled appearance with various shades of teal, blue, and green, along with some darker, almost black, spots and areas of apparent wear or staining. The grout lines are dark and recessed.

CERA TEAL 2.7X11

A close-up image of a wall or floor covered in square teal ceramic tiles. The tiles have a distressed, weathered appearance with visible brown and white speckles and some surface wear. The tiles are arranged in a grid pattern with dark grout lines.
